Odds and Ends of Gossip.

Whence Comes our Bread

I stood by a farmer's wheat bin,
And toyed with the amber grain,
And the handful of kernels lifted,
Through my fingers fell like rain.
And it seemed, that a fairy whisper
Was borne to my listening ear,
And this is the beautiful story,
I lowered my head to hear:

"Behold 'tis the life of the people,
The food, the strength and power,
That fall through your listless fingers,
While spending an idle hour.
And little need you, nor say.
Of how you are strong and warm,
That your blood is red and stirby
With life from the humble farm.

"All day, through the sultry August,
The toiler guides his plow.
Each furrow is blessed and watered
By the sweat from his rocking brow,
And thus is the wheat ground mellowed
And thus prepared for the seeds,
With plow, and harrow, and roller,
While the sweat falls down in beads.

"And when, with sowing completed,
He watches the seasons go.
Till spring, with its rain and sunshine
Has softened the covering snow,
Waits, waits till the glowing summer
Develops a field of wheat,
And crystallizes the sweat drops,
For you and all to eat.

"Then with reaping and threshing,
All through the summer's heat,
The water that blessed the furrow
Must flow till the work's complete.
Remember the drops which the toiler
Has brushed from his wearied brow,
Are here, in the teeming wheat-bin,
To nourish a nation now."

—Irene Bailey.

THEY WOULD REFORM—The woman who would reform the country and work wonders in the affairs of state is abroad in the l t is a pity that some of the horrid men office holders don't stay at home and give the women a chance. That there are some woman in Kentucky, although debarred from joining in the councils of the lawmakers at Frankfort who feel themselves quite capable of offering advice and suggestions to these lawmakers was proven by a recent visit to our town of two young lady strangers whose mission was full of confidence patriotism, state pride and other things. They came armed with an immense petition addressed to the honorable members of the Kentucky Legislature now in session at Frankfort and recited with many "whereases" and "therefores" that Kentcky must by all means have a new and handsome state house—that the old one at Frankfort is a disgrace to the State, etc. etc. They were calling on the women exclusively and wanted this to be a woman's petition for they believed that the women of the State should take a hand in the State's affairs. It was in vain that some of the good housewives suggested that they were too busy keeping the buttons sewed on papa's pants and helping Willie and Johnnie with their studies, to devote any attention to the building of a new state house. These patriotic young women are persistent and they must have your signature which is only a small matter. The result is that the busy house-wife signs but not without the mental comment that she thinks that her visitors had better be at home attending to their knitting.

THEY LIKED IT—The young folks composing Mrs. Cleaver's class, who gave an elocutionary contest at Bloomfield last week evidently made a good impression on our Nelson county neighbors. The Sentinel of last week says: "The entertainment given by Mrs. Bell Cleaver's class in elocution was a success. The young ladies all acquitted themselves in good style. There were a variety of opinions in regard to the awarding of the medal, but Miss Piety Smith came out winner. Miss Sadie Mayes was complimented for her excellent rendition of 'In the signal box,' and the cute little Margaret Greene received a large share of public favor. The tableau, "Death," deserves special mention. The judges were Dr. J. J. Wakefield, Rev. Simpson and Miss Harriet Humphrey.

NEW FIRM—The well-known drug firm of Waters & Browne has sold its business to Messrs. Glenn C. Wood and J. Irvine Wimsatt and the new firm which will probably be known as Wood & Wimsatt will take possession on February first and open in new quarters—in the McElroy store room Hagan Block. Mr. Wood the senior member of the firm comes from Bardstown where he has been engaged in the drug business for the past eight years. He is a registered pharmacist and is a popular and successful young business man. Mr. Wimsatt is a home boy and has been engaged with Waters & Browne for some time. The new firm should make an enterprising and successful career. Of the old firm Mr. Browne will retire from active business at present on account of bad heath. Mr. Waters will devote his entire time to the duties of Postmaster. The post-office by the way is to be moved into the new place with the drugstore.

RED MEN.—The local tribe of Red Men known as Black Hawk tribe No. 24 has rented the hall in the McElroy & Mc-Chord building and it has been fitted up and will be furnished and converted into a comfortable wigwam. The members are enthusiastic over the progress of the tribe and there is a prospect that the membership will be increased very soon by the initiation into the mysteries of the order, of several palefaces who desire to join. The councils of tribe are held in the Hunting Grounds of Springfield on every Wednesday's sleep at the 7th sun 30th breath.

EPIDEMIC.—If all reports are true and all plans carry through there is to be a regular epedemic of weddings in our midst in the near future. No regular announcements have been made but Dame Rumor and "they say" are quite busy announcing coming events among the young society folks and unless all signs fail the ranks of marriageable young people in the town will be sadly in the need of recruits before the winter is over.

MCCHORD.—Mrs. C. C. McChord who has been in Frankfort a good deal of the time lately was a witness to the Colson-Scott tragedy at the Capital hotel. Mrs. McChord was summoned before the grand jury and it is intimated that her testimony will be quite important in the trial as it is said that she saw the beginning of the trouble and can probably say who fired the first shot in the fatal duel.

AUGUST FLOWER.

"It as a surprising fact." says Prof. Houton, "that in my travels in all parts of the world for the last ten years I have met more people having used Green's August Flower than any other remedy for dyspepsia, deranged liver and stomach and for constipation. I find for tourists and salesmen, or for persons filling office positions, where headaches and general bad feelings from irregular habits exist, that Green's August Flower is a grand remedy. It does not injure the system by frequent use and is excellent for sour stomachs and indigestion." Sample bottle free at Haydon & Robertson's. Sold by dealers in all civilized countries.

L. A. Greer, Berry Ferry, Ky., writes Dr. M. A. Simmons' Liver Medicine arouses the liver to action like calomel, without nauseating or debilitating. It is a strengthening tonic. Cures the constipation. I think it stronger and superior to Zeilen's Regulator and Black Draught.

Queer Names of Farms in 1799.

The queer names given to tracts of land by the owners in olden time are illustrated in a conveyance encountered by a clerk in the Baltimore record office recently while engaged in reorganizing the indexes The deed in question is recorded in liber W. G. No. 60. folio 57. It was executed in 1799. and conveyed from Joshua Stevenson to Richard Gittings five tracts land in Baltimore county, the consideration being $1,000. The name of each tract and its dimensions are as follows; "My Sweet Girl, My Friend and Pitcher," 62 acres: "Here is Life Without Care and Love Without Fear," 41¼ acres: "The Unexpected Discovery," 262 acres: "Hug Me Snug," 15½ acres, and "Stevenson's Cow Posture, with Little I Am Content," 22 acres—Boston Transcript.

Lyon's Laxative Syrup,

Natures Cure for Constipation,
DOES NOT GRIPE. If you do not like it better than any laxative you have ever used, your druggist will refund the money. Good for children as well as grown people.

As to Trusts.

Some of the people who have such a great fear of the "trusts" cornering all the good things of the earth and holding them so tight that the rest of us will starve to death before we can make them loosen their grip, ought to get some consolation out of late doings the New York Commercial. It was rumored that the Produce Exchange Company came to grief trying to "finance" some of the speculators who try to "corner" things in trust fashion. Whether this was true or not it any rate points to the almost traditional way in which rich men and rich institutions that indulge in this sort of immorality often come to grief. There seems to be a penalty lurking somewhere for every professional speculator, whether it be in stocks or pool tickets. And sooner or later he is pounced on by his fate. All the alleged great trust enterprises, if they exist anywhere else than in the lurid imaginations of professional octopus hunters, are purely speculative, gotten up for the purpose of bring about an artificial relation between the supply and demand for the thing they control. If the public balks for an hour at their critical periods, they break like bubbles. It must always be in this way. There is such an enormous margin between the demands of the public when it is feeling thoroughly good natured, satisfied with itself and its caterers and purveyors, and that same demand when it is feeling ugly and suspicious and ready to balk at every shadow, that the difference is great enough to crush the biggest trust that was ever conceived or ever will be.—The Weed.

It has been demonstrated repeadedly every state in the Union and in many foreign countries that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is a certain preventive and cure for croup. It has become the universal remedy for that disease. M V. Fisher, of Liberty, W. Va., only repeats what has been said around the globe when he writes: "I have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in my family for several years and always with perfect success. We believe that it is not only the best cough remedy, but that it is a sure cure for croup. It has saved the lives of our children a number of times." This remedy is for sale by Haydon & Robertson.

Louisville the Largest.

Louisville is the "largest leaf tobacco market in the world." Our local papers do not contend this is a fact when calculating the amount in dollars, but as to the amount of tobacco handled and the number of people employed in producing this tobacco for market Lousville is as far ahead of New York, Amsterdam, and Bremen as she is of Cincinnati, Clarksville, and the other Western markets. The East is great in other things, but in tobacco the West is the natural center of the business, and will for all time remain so. It would be well for the Eastern papers to take note of the fact our Western markets, Cincinnati and Dayton, for instance, are becoming quite large cigar leaf tobacco markets. To get back to the original contention of the U. S. Journal, it would be well for this paper to note also, that in one year the transactions in tobacco on the Louisville market have amounted to twenty millions of dollars. Can New York or Amsterdam or Bremen exceed this.—The Weed.

Many an innocent little darling is suffering untold agony and cannot explain its troubles. Mark your child's symptoms, you may find it troubled with worms; give it White's Cream Vermifuge and restore it to quietness and health. Price 25 cents. Haydon & Robertson, druggists.

If you are restless and cannot sleep at night, a dose of Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar Honey will give you natural rest and refreshing sleep. It checks a cough at once and cures a cold in one night. It heals the throat, chest and lungs, cures la grippe permanently, does not stupify, is harmless. Children love it. Old people like it. Good druggists sell it.

Lewis Dennis, Salem, Ind., says, "Kodol Dyspepsia Cure did me more good than anything I ever took." It digests what you eat and can not help but cure dyspepsi and stomach troucles.

AN ENDURING MONUMENT should be reared to the man who can cure dyspepsia. We want the monument, and have made our claim on the merits of the Red Circle Pill. It may cure any curable case of Dyspepsia. Haydon & Robertson.

How to Cure Becon.

To have good bacon we must start with the pig and feed for muscle and flesh, and not alone for fat.

Spring pigs make the cheapest pork.

Very large hogs are not the best for first-class bacon.

Always cure pork with dry salt, never in brine.

From four to six weeks is long enough to lay in salt.

Smoke to a bright ginger-bread color with oak or hickory wood.

To prevent the "skipper" smoke early, and afterward enclose the meat around with thin cloth stretched on frames.

The meat-house, if cool and dry is the best place for keeping the bacon during summer and fall.

Ayer's Hair Vigor

What does it do?
It causes the oil glands in the skin to become more active, making the hair soft and glossy, precisely as nature intended.
It cleanses the scalp from dandruff and thus removes one of the great causes of baldness.
It makes a better circulation in the scalp and stops the hair from coming out.

It Prevents and It Cures Baldness

Ayer's Hair Vigor will surely make hair grow on bald heads, provided only there is any life remaining in the hair bulbs.
It restores color to gray or white hair. It does not do this in a moment, as will a hair dye; but in a short time the gray color of age gradually disappears and the darker color of youth takes its place.
Would you like a copy of our book on the Hair and Scalp? It is free.
If you do not obtain all the benefit you desire from the use of the Vigor write the Doctor about it.
Address, Dr. J. C. AYER, Lowell, Mass.

"Bob" Grimes in the Klondike.

Robert A. Grimes, who left Harrodsburg over ten years ago, to grow up with the country, landed in Alaska about three years since, and has been engaged in "staking claims" and digging out disappointment, and being swindled by rascally partners until last year, when he changed his occupation from a gold miner to mail carrier. In 1899 he carried mail and passengers from Atlin, B. C., to Skagway, Alaska, on dog sleds, a distance of five hundred miles, while the thermometer registered from twenty-five to sixty-five degrees below zero. On the first of this month he assumed charge of a new transportation company, and will carry mail and passengers from Skagway to Epwson. The following from the "Skagway Daily Budget" will be of interest to his many friends in Harrodsburg:

"The plan of this company, under the experienced management of R. A. Grimes, will be to give the best service possible under a guarantee of speed and safetp to shipments.

Passengers will be provided for much in the fashion of a pleasure sleigh ride, furs galore, and every possible arrangement being provided for their comfort. Mr. Grimes' wide northern experience, covering winter mail carrying, and Alaskan road construction, is a practical guarantee of the service that will be given by the new company, and from a personal quaintance with the gentlemen, the Budget strongly commends the Common Sense Transportation to the traveling public.—Harrodsburg Democrat.

Sweet music appeals to the heart and soul and lightens many of life's burdens. If you have ever heard the sweet-toned Steger Piano you will appreciate this. To reach the highest standard of excellence has always been the aim in the manufacture of the Celebrated Steger Piano. Only the best material is used, insuring great durability. Every piano fully guaranteed. The Steger factories, thoroughly equipped with the best and most improved machinery, located at Steger, Ill., are among the largest in the west.

Intending purchasers will find it profitable to write for full descriptive catalogue, which will be mailed free, upon application. Strauss & Co. (Established 1879), Chicago, Ill. 20tf

A few doses of Dr. M. A. Simmons Liver Medicine will do more for a weak Stomach than a prolonged course of any other medicine.

"I was nearly dead with dyspepsia, tried doctors, visited mineral springs, and grew worse. I used Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. That cured me." It digests what you eat. Cures indigestion, sour stomach, heartburn and all forms of dyspepsia. Waters & Browne.

The Horse Gets the Worst of It.

Squire James Mullins had a rather sensational experience last Thursday. Early in the morning he came to town and hired a horse and buggy of Tom Smith, for his wife and mother, who were going to Rose Hill to attend the funeral of Mr. James Henry. He hitched the horse to the court-house yard and came up in town to get shaved. In the meantime John Patterson, of Dixville, drove in and hitched his horse by the side of Mullins'. Both horse were black and the buggies were similar. When Mullins returned he took Patterson's horse instead of his own. His mother and wife went to the funeral, and were returning when met by Mr. Patterson, who had started home walking, thinking his horse had broken loose. He told them they were driving his horse, and they became alarmed. He went home with them and was informed by the children that Mr. Mullins had gone to Dr. Kyle's on business, and were still more alarmed that he had left home. However, he returned later and the mistake was explained. He never thought about Smith's horse being hitched to the court house chain, and it stood there all day and the following night, when taken loose by K. C. Smith and turned over to I. C. James, who cared for it until called for by the owner.—Harrodsburg Democrat.

Queer Newspapers.

At Prince Albert, a remote but busy village in the Canadian Northwest, a weekly newspaper is, or was regularly published in the handwriting of its proprietor, editor, reporter, advertising agent and printer, the five being one man. He adorned his lively four page sheet with caricatures rudely copied from comic papers, and decorated his horse and stock "ads" with rough cuts. The paper appeared in purple ink from a gelatine copying press, or hektograph, and its editorials and local news were usually so clearly presented that the little journal was influential in the Territories, read with avidity in the newspaper offices of Eastern Canada, and constantly quoted as an authority.

A newspaper by the same process is the Mashonaland Herald and Zambesi Times, conducted by an Englishman in the wilds of Africa, and supported by subscriptions and "ads" from miners and traders.

The most northerly of newspapers is said to be the Nord Kap, published weekly in Hammerfest, Norway, by Peter Johonsson, who lives and works in a little tuft roofed house. The Nord Kap is however, regularly printed from news received from a ship, which touches at Hammerfest—but once in eight days. Sometimes the latest news arrives on the day of publication for the former batch, and then "the latest" does not get into the Nord Kap until it has been known fourteen days or more to the great world to the southward.

But the most curious paper of all is that described by G. A. Sala as formerly published in the Deccan. This paper was lithographed every morning on a square of white cotton cloth. After having perused it, the subscribers employed it as a pocket handkerchief. Then they sent it to the local washerwoman, who returned it a clean square of white cotton, to the publisher, who lithographed and issued the sheets again and again.—New Orleans Picayune.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 25, 1900.

THE following is the latest bulletin from the South African war: Gen. Buller's flanking movement brought him face to face with a strong Boer position at Spion's Kop, from which there was no hope of dislodging the enemy except by assault with infantry. Owing to the nature of the graund, artillery could be used to little advantage by the British, and Gen. Buller decided upon a night attack. It was expected that this would be made last night. The Boers have concentrated in great force and the gravest anxiety is felt in London as to the outcome of the trouble

THE election contest proceedings drag wearily along at Frankfort. The past week has been taken up in hearing evidence of more or less—principally less—importance and the same program will be continued for the balance of the week and perhaps longer. In the meantime the public is growing tired—very tired of this election muddle and the quicker something is settled or upset the better it will be for all concerned

THE impression is growing that Col D G. Colson the surviving principal in the terrible Colson-Scott tragedy enacted at Frankfort last week acted in self defense. It is said that it will be proven that Scott fired first and also that there was a conspiracy to kill Colson by Scott and his friends. Colson's examining trial is set for January 31.

Henry A. Hazen, one of the chief forecasters of the Weather Bureau, died in Washington from injuries received the night before in a bicycle collision.

Washington Letter.

(From Our Regular Correspondent.)

Washington, January 19. 1900—Congress woke up this week, and got down to business in both branches, and lively speeches were made in both House and Senate. Senators Wolcott and Vest, both of whom are good talkers, made speeches for and against the administration's Philippine policy, and the Senate showed once more, by a two-third vote against Senator Pettigrew's amendment to the Hoar resolution of general inquiry, which was afterwards adopted without a division, calling for the instructions given by the President to the Peace Commissioners; that it approved the President's Philippine policy. The Senate adopted the Hale resolutions of inquiry concerning the seizure of American flour by the British, in South African waters, after it had been modified to a marked extent, and agreed to vote on the Financial bill the most notable one made by Senator Teller.

That Roberts must go is the unanimous report of the committee. Two recommendations are made as to how to get rid of him Seven members of the committee sign the recommendation that his seat shall be declared vacant, and two members, Littlefield, Republican, and De Armond, Democrat, recommend that he shall be seated and then expelled. The House will dispose of the matter early in the coming week, and Mr. Roberts will be given an opportunity to go home and try to square himself with his three wives.

Gen. Joe Wheeler has been relieved of duty in the Philippines and is on his way to Washington He will not, according to the opinion of some of the best lawyers in Congress, be allowed to take his seat in the House, owing to his having held a military commission since the meeting of this Congress, which it is claimed, vacated the seat in the House to which he was elected.

While the House had the General Deficiency appropriation bill under discussion, the charges against Secretary Gage of favoring certain national banks, which the majority claims to have been refuted by Secretary Gage's answer to the resolution calling for all the correspondence etc. with national banks, a claim not admitted by the minority, were brought to the front by a speech of Representative Richardson, of Tennessee, the minority leader, who claimed that the figures in the answer proved the correctness of some of the charges. This was vigorously confuted by Representative Hopkins, of Illinois, who said the Secretary of the Treasury deserved nothing but commendation. For a moment it looked as though there would be trouble, when Mr. Hopkins asserted with heat that any man with a thimble full of brains or any knowledge of law ought to have known better than to make a statement like that made by Mr. Richardson concerning the taxable status of the old custom House in New York, which was sold to one of the alleged favored banks, but the matter was allowed to pass.

If the friends of the Hepburn Nicaragua Canal Bill in the House can pass the bill, which the committee of Interstate and Foreign Commerce has favorably reported, the bill will have an excellent chance of being sent to the President, as practically the same bill has been favorably reported to the Senate, and according to Senator Morgan, who is in charge of it, will be taken up and passed, if the House acts favorably upon it. Sentiment in the House strongly favors the bill, but there is a fear among its friends that the administration does not wish action on the question until the Isthian Canal Commission now at work, makes its report, which will not be before next year. Nothing can get through the House, under the rules now in force, that is not approved by the administration, and the Senate will not take the bill up until the House passes it

A CLEAN MAN.

Outside cleanliness is less than half the battle. A man may scrub himself a dozen times a day, and still be unclean. Good health means cleanliness not only outside, but inside. It means a clean stomach, clean bowels, clean blood, a clean liver, and new, clean, healthy tissues and fibers in every organ of the body. The man who is clean in this way will look it and act it. He will work with energy and think clean, clear, healthy thoughts.

He will never be troubled with liver, lung, stomach or blood disorders. Dyspepsia and indigestion originate in unclean stomachs. Blood diseases are found where there is unclean blood. Consumption and bronchitis mean unclean lungs. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery prevents these diseases. It makes a man's insides clean and healthy. It cleans the digestive organs, makes pure, clean blood, and clean, healthy flesh. It doesn't make the flabby fat of corpulency, but the firm flesh of health. It restores tone to the nervous system, and cures nervous exhaustion and prostration. It contains no alcohol to inebriate or create craving for injurious stimulants.

Mr. John L. Coughenour, of Glen Savage, Somerset Co., Pa., writes: "My appetite was unusually poor, and I was as weak and nervous as though I had been starved for months. My heart kept throbbing continually and I was short of breath. Finally I wrote to you for advice and you informed me that I had indigestion and a torpid liver. I did not think your diagnosis was right, but I ordered six bottles of 'Golden Medical Discovery' from you and began its use. After using three bottles I began to improve slowly and soon went to work, and I have been working ever since."

Constipation is the most unclean uncleanliness. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure it. They never gripe.

To cure a cold, stop coughing, as it irritates the lungs, and doesn't give them any chance to heal. Foley's Honey and Tar cures without causing a strain in throwing off the phlegm like common cough expectorants. Haydon & Robertson.

Save doctors' bills by giving Foley's Honey and Tar to infants and children in time to prevent pneumonia or croup, which are fatal to so many thousands of babies. Haydon & Robertson.

The person who took the umbrella by mistake from the Springfield hotel some few days ago will please return it and leave it for the owner.

The farm belonging to Mrs. Ferd Spalding consisting of 29 acres situated near Sims, Ky., was sold on Monday at public sale for $630. Mr. John F. Simms became the purchaser.

Mr. W. B Spears sold for the commissioner on county court day 55 acres of land for $200. It was in the case of Thos. Y. Reed against James Young. In the case of Hall against Hall a sale of 70 acres of land was made. Price $734.

Col. R. E. Whayne reports the sale of C. D. Champion at Fenwick on last Saturday. Owing to bad weather the crowd was small but those that attended came to make purchases. The following is a list of the sales: One 7 year-old gelding, $36; 1 5-year-old combined mare, $115; 1 8-year-old farm mare $45; 1 7-year old mare, $45; 1 6-year-old mare, $35; 1 buggy, $60; 1 pair of harness, 9.50; 1 2-horse wagon, $15; 1 wrought range cook stove $25; household furniture and farming implements brought good prices Mr. Champion was well pleased with results of sale.

Black Hawk Tribe of Improved Order of Red Men is decidedly on a boom. Some of the braves started out on the hunt for palefaces a few days ago and as a result the following applications were put in at the meeting last evening: Judge B. L. Litsey, H. R. Thompson, T. Scott Mayes, W. T. Comstock, Will Cambron, C. A. Thompson, John C. Shader, Robert Noe, S. E. Clements, John Y. Mayes, W. T. McClellan, Herman Schmenck, Tom Thompson, John Grace, James R Noe I. H. Thurman, H. B. McElroy and William Wharton. The tribe now contains about 45 members and it has every prospect of growing.

William Keeling and his wife, Rosa Keeling, were tried by a jury before Judge Litsey on Saturday on the charge of committing a common nuisance by keeping a disorderly house. They live on Possum Ridge near Polin and have a bad reputation in the neighborhood. Several witnesses, among who were two boys about fifteen or sixteen years old who testified that they had visited the house for immoral purposes. The jury, after hearing the case, assessed a fine of twenty-five dollars and twenty-five days in jail for each. The sentence in the case of the woman was suspended one week that she might go home and make some arrangement for the keeping of her children while she serves out the penalty of her own wrong doings. The man is serving his time in jail.

John Hardin who lives in the Polin neighborhood was tried before Judge Litsey on Tuesday on a warrant sworn out against him by Mr. John McNulty. Mr. McNulty who lives in the same neighborhood claims that he has been greatly annoyed of late by bad characters of the neighborhood visiting his place and throwing rocks against his house firing off roman candles and committing other acts intended to intimidate and annoy him. Mr McNulty swore that this had been going on for some time and that on the night of January 11th his house was bombarded with rocks and that on going out he recognized the defendant John Hardin and Jim Coulter. Hardin attempted to prove an alibi by Jessie Chesher who swore that on the night in question he stayed all night with Hardin at the latter's home. It was brought out at the trial however that Chesher had also been accused of joining in the offenses against old man McNulty and the Court evidently put little faith in the story of the alibi for he held the defendant over in $150 bond to await the action of the grand jury. Coulter is to be tried for the same offense when brought in.

McElroy-Poore.

A quiet wedding ceremony which united two of Springfield's most popular young people took place in Louisville on yesterday. The principals in the ceremony were Mr. Palmer McElroy and Miss Allie Poore. Mr. McElroy, accompanied by his brother, W. D. McElroy, and Miss Dollie Green and Rev. R. E. C. Lawson left Springfield on the early train yesterday morning. In Louisville they were met by the bride-to-be and the marriage took place at the Louisville Hotel some time during the day, the entire party returning on the evening train. The bride has been numbered among Springfield's most attractive young ladies and her friends and admirers are legion, while the groom who is a member of the flourishing firm of Grundy, Claybrooke & Co., is popular with everybody. The NEWS-LEADER extends congratulations.

Court Day Sales.

There was a good crowd in town on County Court day and the live stock market was active cattle especially were in good demand and prices ruled high. Col. R. E. Whayne the auctioneer reports the following sales: 13 calves at $14.50 per head: sold for H. C. Over-Work Weakens Your Kidneys.

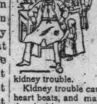
Unhealthy Kidneys Make Impure Blood.

All the blood in your body passes through your kidneys once every three minutes.



The kidneys are your blood-purifiers, they filter out the waste or impurities in the blood.

If they are sick or out of order, they fail to do their work.

Pains, aches and rheumatism come from excess of uric acid in the blood, due to neglected kidney trouble.

Kidney trouble causes quick or unsteady heart beats, and makes one feel as though they had heart trouble, because the heart is over-working in pumping thick, kidney-poisoned blood through veins and arteries.

It used to be considered that only urinary troubles were to be traced to the kidneys, but now modern science proves that nearly all constitutional diseases have their beginning in kidney-trouble.

If you are sick you can make no mistake by first doctoring your kidneys. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases and is sold on its merits by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also pamphlet telling you how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. Mention this paper when writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y.

Death of Judge Thos. P. Hughes.

Judge Thomas P. Hughes, a native of this county, died at his home in Georgetown, Texas, on January 1st, and from a long sketch of his life in the Williamson County Sun, his home paper, we take the following: Thomas Proctor Hughes was born in Springfield, Washington county, Ky., Dec. 18, 1826, and was consequently 73 years and 13 days old at the time of his death. He came to Texas and to Williamson county in 1850, and was married to Miss Susan Doxie in 1856. She died in 1871, and he was married in Louisville, Ky., Nov. 22, 1877, to Miss Jennie Duncan, who with an only son, his father's namesake, survive him. From the first marriage a son and two daughters survive. The Judge united with the Presbyterian church in Georgetown October 5, 1879, was elected Superintendent of the Sunday School November 2. 1897, a ruling elder June 6, 1880, and ordained and installed the following day.

Judge Hughes was a man of fine presence and in his younger days he was exceedingly handsome. Tall and portly and of good address, he attracted attention anywhere. Kind and hospitable by nature, he drew people to him and made many friends. He was a good lawyer when in active practice and a fine business man by his prudence and foresight and by judicious investments accumulated a large fortune. He was a man of pronounced views and ever had the courage of his convictions.

He will be greatly missed in this county and community. A widow, two sons and two daughters, seven grandchildren, a sister, several nephews and neices and many other relatives and a host of friends mourn his loss.

Judge Thos. P. Hughes and his cousin, Ed. H. Vontress, came from Kentucky to Georgetown in 1850. Here they located and began the practice of law together, making land law a specialty and doing a very large business. In 1854 Vontress was sent to the legislature from this county and in 1858 he was elected Judge of this, then the 17th Judicial District, and the firm of Vontress & Hughes was dissolved. Then Judge Hughes and J. J. Dimmitt became law partners. When secession was agitated in 1860 Judge Hughes and E Thomason were elected by the Union men of Williamson county to the State convention, in which the Judge made a strong speech against seceding, but, finding all efforts to stem the tide unavailing, he signed the ordinance and cast his lot with his people. Soon after the war commenced Judge Vontress raised a company of cavalry in this county and went to the front as a part of Morgan's battallion. Judge Hughes joined his company as a private and served as such to the end of the war. His command was engaged in a number of battles in the trans-Mississippian Department and he bore himself as a good and valliant soldier. In 1862 Vontress was killed by lightning, and J. W. Posep became Captain. In 1866 under the Throckmorton administration Judge Hughes was elected Judge of this, then the 17th Judicial District, and held the office until legislated out by the process of redistricting. When Coke was elected Governor in 1865 Judge Hughes was elected District Attorney of this district, holding said position four years. In the opinion of many he was the best District Attorney this district has ever had. Those were stormy times and he put his life in danger many times by his unrelenting prosecution of lawbreakers. His house was fired into several times and still bears the marks of bullets. But he never quailed, doing his duty like the brave man he was.

WILLISBURG.

(From Our Special Correspondent.)

We are sorry to say that our people are retrograding—but so it seems. For several Saturday evenings our village has been the scene of turkey-walks and shooting matches. If this species of gambling is tolerated and the blind tiger and walking saloon given full sway, to what degree of degradation may our children be brought by their pernicious influence? We think some of the good people are taking cognizance of these things and we trust that these evils shall soon end and forever be banished from among us.

Marion County Pikes.

The Fiscal Court convened Tuesday and since then the members have been hard at work upon the road question. Shortly after the court convened, it went into executive session in County Attorney Spalding's office where a plan of action was discussed. Their motto was to get the best service for the least money. At this writing, the following roads have been re-leased: Lebanon Gravel Switch and Rolling Fork at $36 per mile, for 4 miles and $20 per mile for 4½ miles; Lebanon and St. Rose, $25 per mile, 4 miles; Lebanon Short Line $25 per mile, 5 miles; Lebanon and Raywick, $30 per mile, 5 miles; Arbuncle and Mannsville, $30 per mile, 5 miles; St. Mary's, Raywick and New Hope, $30 per mile, 6½ miles; Lebanon, Stuart's Creek and Hodgenville, $35 per mile, 10½ miles; Lebanon and St Rose $50 per mile, 5½ miles; Lebanon, St. Mary's and Chicago $50 per mile, 6 miles, the court offered the Lebanon, Danville and Perryville road $50 per mile, which was rejected; Mr. B. T. Abell's lease to the Bradfordsville road which runs for two years was purchased for $400, for the road, the Barboursville road and the Springfield, New Market and Lebanon road the court will advertise for bids to keep them up for the year 1900. The Hustonville, the Danville and the Cissell's River roads rejected the court's offer. Squire McCauley was elected Poor House Commissioner, with Squire J. T. Smith a close second. The court did its work quick.—Enterprise.

No One Fears Death.

"I have seen thousands of persons die under all sorts of circumstances, and never yet have I seen one display the slightest fear of death." This remarkable statement was made the other day, according to the Philadelphia Record by a physician who has practiced many years in Philadelphia, and who has seen a great deal of hospital service.

"It is popular fallacy," he went on, "to imagine that a death bed scene is very terrible, other than as a parting between loved ones. The fear of the unknown is never present at the last. Even amid ignorance and vice I have never experienced as a novelist, who strives after realism, will sometimes picture.

"When a patient is told that he cannot recover and the end is near, he invariably seems resigned to his fate, and his only thoughts seem to be of those who are left behind. This is true alike of men and women.

"Those who become hysterical and declare they are not fit to die are the ones who are not as ill as they think they are. They always get well. A psychological reason? Oh, I don't that there is any. It's just a human trait."

J. A. Lambert of Rachel, N.C. writes: "I heartily endorse Foley's Kidney Cure. It does what you claim it will do; and there is nothing equal to it, and I thank you for the good it has done me." Haydon & Robertson.

Mrs. Cornwall's Estate,

The following from a Louisville paper is of considerable local interest "Three suits were instituted yesterday by Charles M. McChord, administrator of Eliza B. Cornwall, to recover $20,209.70 paid by Mrs. Cornwall for three annuities on her life.

Mrs. Cornwall was born February 3, 1833 and died October 11, 1898. On January 11, 1897, she bought for $10,286 a $1,000 annuity in the Mutual Benefit Life Insurance Company. On March 6, she purchased a $500 annuity in the New York Life Insurance Company paying $5,143. On October 26, 1897, she purchased a $500 annuity in the Penn Mutual Life Insurance Company, paying $4,780.70. The annuities were payable semi-annually, and on the first annuity she received three payments equally $1,500, second annuity, three payments, equaling $750, third annuity one payment of $250, aggregating $2,000 for which she paid $20,209.70.

When Mrs. Cornwall purchased these three annuities the petition [illegible] that she was then laboring under a disease "which threatened the termination of her life within a very short time thereafter, and which reduced her probable term of life below the average term of life persons of her age."

After Mrs. Cornwall's death the heirs say they offered to pay back the money received by her from the companies and it was demanded that her money be returned to her estate. This was refused and judgment is asked that the full amount paid by Mrs Cornwall be refunded.

Having a Great Run on Chamberlain's Cough Remedy

Manager Martin, of the Pierson drug store, informs us that he is having a great run on Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. He sells five bottles of that medicine to one of any other kind, and it gives great satisfaction. Mules Advancing.

Mule dealers and breeders are feeling quite comfortable over the trade situation in this class of stock. The depression which has existed for some time in prices of this stock, has caused many breeders to go out of business, and many dealers to quit the business. Consequently the supply of mules in the United States is probably lower than for many years. The demand by England for mules for use in the South African war has been quite heavy and stimulated prices considerably. This caused a desire among dealers to stock up again, which added to the demand, and the resulting improved prices caused holders to stiffen up still more on their holdings. Press dispatches state that English agents bought last week in St. Louis and Kansas City, 1,500 mules. Fourteen carloads passed by Memphis, Tenn., last Sunday. It is said that in many sections the price of small mules has advanced 25 or 30 per cent.

Croup, the great enemy of childhood, succumbs at once to the soothing influence of Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey. Bronchial affections lose their danger when this great remedy is at hand. No home should be without it.

Tobacco Market.

Total sales in this market last week were 3,365 hhds. against 4,112 hhds for corresponding week of last year. Total receipts (last week) 2050 hhds for corresponding week last year. Rejections last week were 532 hhds., 16 per cent of the auction sales, against 26 per cent the preceding week. Of the total sales 2,766 hhds were Burley and 599 were dark tobacco.

The improvement in the Burley market noted last week has been large, but the demand seemed fully equal to the supply. The offerings have contained a larger percentage of good leaf, and the improved competition on these grades is quite apparent and gratifying. Mr. Dannenhold, the buyer for the new independent Wetmore factory of St. Louis, has been a strong bidder and made it interesting for the Continental Trust. Lower and medium grades have also shared in the improvement; the brokers and export buyers have been active bidders for these grades. The buyer for McDonald, the Canadian manufacturer, says his averages this week are fully $1 higher than before the holidays. —Farmers Home Journal.

Have You Heard Of It?

You may have heard about SCOTT'S EMULSION and have a vague notion that it is cod-liver oil with its bad taste and smell and all its other repulsive features. It is cod-liver oil, the purest and the best in the world, but made so palatable that almost everybody can take it. Nearly all children like it and ask for more.

SCOTT'S EMULSION

looks like cream; it nourishes the wasted body of the baby, child or adult better than cream or any other food in existence. It bears about the same relation to other emulsions that cream does to milk. If you have had any experience with other so-called "just as good" preparations, you will find that this is a fact.

The hypophosphites that are combined with the cod-liver oil give additional value to it because they tone up the nervous system and impart strength to the whole body.

ALL WOMEN AGREE.

A druggist in Macon, Ga., says: "I have sold a large quantity of Mother's Friend, and have never known an instance where it has failed to produce the good results claimed for it. All women agree that it makes labor shorter and less painful."

Mother's Friend

is not a chance remedy. Its good effects are readily experienced by all expectant mothers who use it. Years ago it passed the experimental stage. While it always shortens labor and lessens the pains of delivery, it is also of the greatest benefit during the earlier months of pregnancy. Morning sickness and nervousness are readily overcome, and the liniment relaxes the strained muscles, permitting them to expand without causing distress. Mother's Friend gives great recuperative power to the mother, and her recovery is sure and rapid. Danger from rising and swelled breasts is done away with completely.

A DOG BANKER

Echo Knows the Value of a Dollar and is a Veritable Miser.

There is a dog, belonging to Mr. Frank Wright of No. 113 Cass street, Chicago, who is a veritable banker among animals. He knows the value of money, hoards it like a miser and answers to the name of Echo.

He is a silver dog and also a sly dog. If he wore stockings, it is certain that he would keep his savings securely tied up and hidden in an old one. As it is he utilizes cracks between the floors and walls, in bad weather, and during the summer solstice plants his hoards here and there in the backyard and jealously guards them with his beady black eye for fear of possible onslaught from those watchful felines on the fence.

Echo is supposed to carry his account in his head, and his buried treasure in no way resembles that of Capt. Kidd except in its magnitude.

The question may have arisen in the mind of the reader, "How does this canine hero make his money to begin with?"

His method is unique and final, and came to his consciousness about two years ago, when he had just passed the door of pampered puppyhood. He is greatly esteemed by its owner, and his idiosyncrasy is accepted as a necessary part of his make up.

It is sad to relate, but true, that Echo does not earn his wage by the sweat of his brow, but rather takes advantage of the love his master bears him. His system is to refuse meat or drink unless he is paid in advance for his part of the transaction.

For example, he loves coffee, but will not touch it unless it is flavored with a nickel. He drops the nickel in himself, and after the cheerful clink at the bottom of his cup he swallows the contents joyfully. For a second cup the nickel must be removed and dropped in as before. The family has endeavored to make the same nickel do continued service, but Echo has outwitted them by his superior staying powers. A nickel has to be forthcoming at every meal, and if Echo will not cause one to materialize somebody else must.

Echo also approves of sweet pastries, but these cost his family a quarter, as the little fellow will have none of 10-cent pieces; these are too small and troublesome to bank properly. After the meal, Echo grabs his nickel or silver and steals off to hide it from the sight of mortal eye.

Recently Echo buncoed a certain railroad president out of a trade dollar. Doubting the dog's perspicacity, the magnate gave him a silver cart wheel, which Echo grabbed with a delirium of joy, rushed out, and placed it in one of his safety deposits—a certain hole in the wall—before his new friend could say Jack Robinson.

Doubt cost the president $1 in this case. Briefly, these are Echo's methods of finance. Burglars need not attempt to loot this bowbow's bank, for he watches his own treasure sleeplessly. He is supposed to take his hygienic promenades with great reluctance, fearing that thieves or cats may impoverish him.

HOME CURE FOR BLOOD POISON.

Beware of the Doctors' Patchwork; You Can Cure Yourself at Home.

There is not the slightest doubt that the doctors do more harm than good in treating Contagious Blood Poison; many victims of this loathsome disease would be much better off to-day if they had never allowed themselves to be dosed on mercury and potash, the only remedies which the doctors ever give for blood poison.

The doctors are wholly unable to get rid of this vile poison, and only attempt to heal up the outward appearance of the disease—the sores and eruptions. This they do by driving the poison into the system, and endeavor to keep it shut in with their constant doses of potash and mercury. The mouth and throat and other delicate parts then break out into sores, and the fight is continued indefinitely, the drugs doing the system more damage than the disease itself.

Mr. H. L. Myers, 100 Mulberry St., Newark, N. J., says: "I had spent a hundred dollars with the doctors, when I realized that they could do me no good. I had large spots all over my body, and these soon broke out into running sores, and I endured all the suffering which this vile disease produces. I decided to try S. S. S. as a last resort, and was soon greatly improved. I followed closely your 'Directions for Self-Treatment,' and the large splotches on my chest began to grow paler and smaller, and before long disappeared entirely. I was soon cured perfectly and my skin has been as clear as glass ever since. I cured myself at home, after the doctors had failed completely."

It is valuable time thrown away to expect the doctors to cure Contagious Blood Poison, for the disease is beyond their skill. Swift's Specific—

S. S. S. FOR THE BLOOD

—acts in an entirely different way from potash and mercury—it forces the poison out of the system and gets rid of it entirely. Hence it cures the disease, while other remedies only shut the poison in where it lurks forever, constantly undermining the constitution. Our system of private home treatment places a cure within the reach of all. We give all necessary medical advice, free of charge, and save the patient the embarrassment of publicity. WAGES OF SIN

A Book for Young and Old.

OUR RECORD Estd 1878. 250,000 DISEASED MEN CURED — WE CURE NERVOUS BLOOD SKIN & PRIVATE DISEASES

250,000 CURED

YOUNG MAN Have you sinned against nature when ignorant of the terrible crime you were committing. Did you only consider the fascinating allurements of this evil habit? When too late to avoid the terrible results, were your eyes opened to your peril? Did you later on in manhood contract any PRIVATE or BLOOD disease? Were you cured? Do you now and then see some alarming symptoms? Dare you marry in your present condition? You know, "LIKE FATHER, LIKE SON." If married, are you constantly living in dread? Is marriage a failure with you on account of any weakness caused by early abuse or later excesses? Have you been drugged with mercury? This booklet will point out to you the results of these crimes and point out how our NEW METHOD TREATMENT will positively cure you. It shows how thousands have been saved by our NEW TREATMENT. It proves how we can GUARANTEE TO CURE ANY CURABLE CASE OR NO PAY. We treat and cure—EMISSIONS, VARICOCELE, SYPHILIS, GLEET, STRICTURE, IMPOTENCY, SECRET DRAINS, UNNATURAL DISCHARGES, KIDNEY and BLADDER diseases.

CURES GUARANTEED

"The Wages of Sin" sent free by enclosing 2c stamp. CONSULTATION FREE. If unable to call, write for QUESTION BLANK for HOME TREATMENT.

Sleep and Rest Unknown.—My wife was severely troubled for over a year with a cough, which was becoming serious in its nature. It began as an asthmatic or bronchial affection, and notwithstanding our best physicians did all for her they could, and we used various cough and lung remedies, she still grew worse until sleep and rest were unknown to her. A friend persuaded us to try Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey, and I wish to say it is the most wonderful remedy I ever heard of. It quickly and permanently restores health and vigor to weak lungs. We shall never be without it. John A. Marshall, Police Judge, Campbellsville, Ky.

Coughed Twenty-Five Years.—I had heard of Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey, and seeing many recommendations from different persons of its wonderful, valuable merits, I thought I would try a bottle. I have been seriously affected for twenty-five years with a cough and pains in my side and breast that were causing me a miserable life. I spent hundreds of dollars with doctors and for medicine, but everything failed until I found this wonderful remedy. It beats the world, and has saved my life. I recommend Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey to everybody with weak lungs. It is a great success.—J. B. Russell, Grantsburg, Ill.

Bronchitis Cured.—Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey is the best cough remedy we have ever used. My wife had a severe case of bronchitis and throat trouble, and a sample bottle relieved her to such an extent that I bought a dollar bottle for her, and she is now almost fully recovered. We will never be without Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey in our house.—T. A. Wilburn, Taylorsville, Ky.

Can't Keep House Without It.—Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey is the best cough remedy I have ever sold. I have sold more of it in the past two years than of all other cough and cold medicines combined. We give it to our children and think we can hardly keep house without it.—W. H. Tibbals, Druggist, Somerset, Ky.

Whooping Cough.—Several of my children have been afflicted with whooping cough, and never before have the distressing symptoms of that troublesome malady been so quickly and permanently relieved as when I resorted to the use of Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey.—E. W. Bagby, Lawyer, Paducah, Ky.

Throat and Lungs.—I am pleased to say that Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey affords me great relief. I consider it the best cough medicine I have ever taken for the throat and lungs.—R. F. Jackson, Oliver, Ga.

25 CENTS AT ALL GOOD DRUGGISTS.

I am 86 years old, and have used about all of the cough and lung remedies that have been sold during my life; and for the benefit of the suffering, I will say that I have never used any remedy equal to Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey. It gives quick and permanent relief in Grippe, as well as other coughs. We keep it in our house all the time and would not be without it.

Mrs. M. A. METCALFE,
1005 S. 6th Street, Paducah, Ky.

Could Not Talk.—Mrs. Smith Wooldridge, of this place, who was so afflicted with her throat for over two years that she could not speak above a whisper, after she used the first bottle of Dr Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey, could talk as well as ever, and the case is such a wonderful cure that her neighbors come in to see her for themselves, and are astonished to hear her talk.—D. Wilson & Son, Druggists, Kimble, Ky.

Pneumonia Prevented.—I had a very severe cold and sore throat—in fact, I thought I was taking pneumonia. I got a 25-cent bottle of Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey, and after using it one day and night I can say that it is the best remedy I ever used. I recommend it highly to everybody.—Lewis C. Davis, J. P., Allenville, Mo.

Consumption Cured.—I have sold Pine-Tar-Honey for one year. Find it a splendid remedy and good seller. Sold five bottles to Miss Stella Howell, of this place, who was considered to have consumption. She is now in good health.—J. T. Grisham, Druggist, Grantsburg, Ill.

For the Babies.—I have no doubt that Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey is good for everything it is recommended for, but for coughing children I know it is pre-eminently the right medicine.—A. C. Helms, Editor of the Morristown (Tenn.) Republican.
